

Food ..

Report of the : Common points

The good practice

The transferable actions

Common points:

- Composition of the menus in the canteen of the students
- To change the students perspective about eating healthy and various.
- Forming seminars about eating healthy.

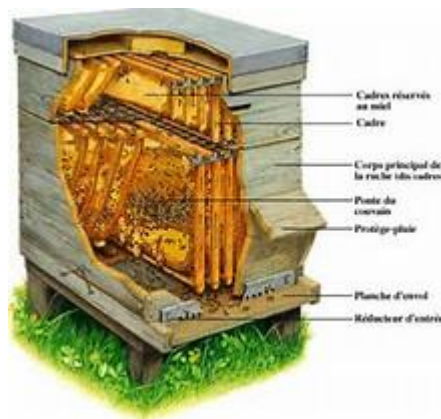

The good practice:

- Finding a way to stop the waste of food in school canteen.
- Living healthy to be successful in your career or in your social life.
- Try to make organic gardens for the pupils who study in the school or work in the canteen.

Transferable actions:

- Transfer the composting in other countries.

- Constructing safety Hives to increase pollination of the flowers so they could provide us oxygen.

How do each school communicate about their actions?

- The schools in the town should gather and form a council to discuss the problems of their schools.

- Make common charity events.

- Discuss holidays to be common to all schools.

ERASMUS+ 2017